Linnea's Lights® and terrain Partner for Two Exclusive Scents

PHILADELPHIA & NYC (March 10, 2010) – In a partnership founded on a joint appreciation for seasonality and the handmade process, Linnea's Lights® & terrain are pleased to announce the launch of two new scents: Heirloom Tomato and Seashore.

Available exclusively at terrain's store in Glen Mills, PA, and online at shopterrain.com, both the Heirloom Tomato and Seashore scents will be available beginning Monday, March 15, for $28.

Heirloom Tomato

Inspired by a walk through the Brandywine Valley's tomato fields, the Heirloom Tomato scent captures the aroma of a just-picked tomato off the vine. With top notes of fresh citrus and a leafy herbaceous middle, this earthy scent has a rich oakmoss base.

Seashore

This fresh, calming scent captures the serenity of the shore. Light and breezy, the Seashore scent boasts top notes of citrus and ozone with a green floral heart. The sea moss base completes this subtle yet robust scent, imparting the essence of a walk along the beach.

About terrain:

terrain is the home & garden brand from the folks who brought you Anthropologie and Urban Outfitters. In 2008 terrain opened its first store in Glen Mills, Pa., on the site of the historic J. Franklin Styer's Nursery. Since then, the terrain team has been traveling the globe to find the most inspiring collection of garden goods, plants, furniture, gifts, locally-sourced and prepared artisan foods, home and garden décor, in addition to found objects and antiques. With a focus on growing, wellness, sustainability, and design, the terrain mission is to transform the local garden center into a celebration of community, seasonality, and the self-expression of the gardener.
